Letter of Reference for Daniel Cancelmo

To Whom It May Concern:

I write to provide my highest possible recommendation for Daniel Cancelmo.

I first met Mr. Cancelmo in the spring of 2015 when he was completing his senior year at Conestoga High School in Berwyn, Pennsylvania. Seniors about to graduate are encouraged to find an experience in a discipline of interest and to work full-time in that environment for one month. Students maintain journals of their experiences and report on their work to on-site supervisors, as well as a faculty member at school.

I am a partner in the Philadelphia office of Pietragallo Gordon Alfano Bosick & Raspanti, LLP. Following my tenure as a criminal prosecutor in both state and federal court in Pennsylvania, I transitioned to my current practice of white collar criminal defense and complex civil matters. My practice is national in scope.

Mr. Cancelmo worked in my office daily from May 4th through May 29th, 2015 and accompanied me to a variety of meetings and hearings. I assigned Mr. Cancelmo to assist our office staff with organizational activities, and I assigned Mr. Cancelmo to work with me and other attorneys in our office on substantive case assignments. Mr. Cancelmo was always eager to assist and devoted himself entirely to each assignment. Mr. Cancelmo demonstrated great maturity and professionalism. He was always timely in completing assignments and asked informed, relevant questions. Frankly, Mr. Cancelmo demonstrated just as much insight and good judgment as many law students and first-year attorneys with whom I have worked.

You and your colleagues would be very lucky to have Mr. Cancelmo join your organization; I certainly wish he could have stayed longer at my firm. If you have any questions or would like to discuss Mr. Cancelmo's application for a position with your organization, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

DOUGLAS K. ROSENBLUM
